PRAY FOR THE SICK

Father of Love, hear our prayer for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need. Amid their suffering may they find consolation in your healing presence. Show your mercy as You cure illness and make broken bodies whole. We ask this through the Lord Jesus who healed those who believe. Amen.

WELCOME to the newest member of our St. Pius X community, Rory Joe Hardwick, son of Rhett & Eryn Hardwick, baptized here this weekend.

Repose of the Soul

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Helen Fadler, sister-in-law of Ginny Long and for the comfort and consolation of her family.

We wish to extend the warmest gratitude to St. Pius X Parish for their prayers through Sam's cancer battle and since his passing. We are very grateful to the parish for allowing us to have Sam's funeral. Special thanks to the following for their time and effort to ensure we felt the love of Christ around us during such a difficult time: Father Joby Thomas, Deacon Chris Sago, Deacon John Hill, Sarah Mefford, the Joshua Musical Group, the Funeral Dinner Committee, Anna Marie Goosey, Mike and Libby Mattox and all who assisted with the funeral and dinner. Thank you also for welcoming Father Mike Coleman and Deacon Burdett Wilson (Sam's pastoral team) to preside over Sam's funeral.

With the greatest of gratitude, The Family of Sam Schwartz Parents, Carl and Vikki Schwartze, Wife, Emmy Schwartze and Grandmother, Joyce Clapham.

Keep these and all of St. Pius X family members and friends in your prayers. Call the Parish Office with updates.

*If today you hear his voice,
harden not your hearts.
Come, let us bow down in worship; let us kneel before the Lord who made us. For he is our God, and we are the people he shepherds, the flock he guides.*

Psalm 95:8, 6-7

We are motivated by love and gratitude to imitate Christ and follow his commands. When we allow God to guide us, we are better able to turn away from evil and towards God. He will heal us and give us the grace to persevere.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Oh, to not be anxious! What would that be like – to not have to worry about how we'll pay the bills or whether our kids are safe or if our health will fail? While anxiety is a very human emotion, we can take comfort in knowing that our God is more powerful than anything that may worry us. It is also important to note that in today's reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Corinthians, what he means by "anxious" is not a modern psychological concept with only a negative connotation. The connotation is more "to be concerned with," or "caring about" something, and can refer to things that are very good – including spouses and families! But when we care for many things, including our relationship with God, it is only natural for us to be anxious at times. But Jesus Christ gives us the assurance that the troubles of this world are temporary, and the peace of God eternal. Paul is encouraging the Corinthians, and us, to understand the importance of an undivided devotion to God, to care for him above all things – no matter if we are married or single – so that our whole life is devoted to holiness.

PRAY Today's psalm (Ps 95:1-2, 6-7, 7-9) is a beautiful prayer of thanksgiving and encouragement. It helps us steer our minds from those things which may make us anxious. Spend time in the morning or evening each day of the coming week, praying and reflecting on the words.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I am always thankful when something good that has been anticipated, or predicted, comes to pass: The sunshine and mild weather holds true for that outdoor event I hosted; or the generous gift that a longtime friend mailed arrives unscathed. There is some anxiety in the waiting for, but relief in the fulfillment of, these beneficent promises. And while these are somewhat superficial examples, they do point us in the same direction of hope and gratitude that the divine gifts of God elicit in us. In today's first reading, Moses promises the people that the Lord will raise up for them, from among their own kin, a prophet who will speak God's own words and to whom the people will listen. And the Lord did provide numerous prophets, and kings, and judges, and eventually his only begotten Son, to call his people back to himself, and to save them from the wages of sin and death. The hope and anticipation God's chosen people had was fulfilled in Jesus' life, death and resurrection. We share in that gift of hope and of gratitude for our salvation.

Rest of the Soul

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Richard Sunderland, son of Charla Fleck, and for the comfort and consolation of his family.

St. Vincent de Paul is looking for a tall 4-drawer locking file cabinet. The member files are growing and we need the cabinet for records! If the cabinet is very inexpensive, we can buy, but if it can be donated its even better. Call Wanda Finnigan if you can help (660-651-7460).

I would like to thank everyone for the warm "Welcome Dinner" held this past Saturday evening. I felt so special and truly appreciate all who helped with this dinner. St. Pius X is very special to me and I love being part of this church family..... Jane Green
