Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 8:23—9:3 | 1 Cor 1:10-13, 17 | Mt 4:12-23

Written by
THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." For most of my life, any time I have heard these words of Jesus, the emphasis has always been on "Repent." Recently, I've started to pay more attention to the second half of Jesus' proclamation: "The kingdom of heaven is at hand." Through his coming into our world and the beginning of his public ministry, Jesus' reign has begun. The signs of his kingdom's arrival are striking and immediate; we see Jesus "curing every disease and illness among the people." This is cause for great rejoicing, like the rejoicing we hear of in today's reading from Isaiah: "Anguish has taken wing, dispelled is darkness ... upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shown." Jesus' miracles reveal that the reign of darkness, sin, and death is coming to an end; this is good news, indeed! It's also a major part of our call as disciples. We're called to pray ("thy kingdom come") and to work to advance Jesus' reign on earth.

SERVE

This week, spend some time researching ways you can work with other Christians to serve the sick and the poor of our world. As we conclude this Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (which ends Jan. 25, 2026), there's no better witness we can offer to the dawn of the kingdom of God than being "united in the same mind and in the same purpose" (as Paul calls us to be today) in serving those in need.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Like the Apostles Peter, Andrew, James, and John in today's Gospel, we, too, have been called to help build God's kingdom on earth. We do this in a particular way by continuing the works of Jesus here on earth. As Pope Leo XIV reminds us in Dilexi Te, "The signs that accompany Jesus' preaching are manifestations of the love and compassion with which God looks upon the sick, the poor and sinners ... The Church, if she wants to be Christ's Church, must be ... a place where the poor have a privileged place." (21) Part of the way we bear witness to the inbreaking of God's kingdom on earth is to put those who are ill and marginalized at the center of our concern. Then the kingdom of God will be manifest and visible in the world, drawing others to Christ.

STEWARDSHIP IN ACTION AT ST. PIUS X CATHOLIC CHURCH

PILLAR OF SERVICE St. Vincent de Paul Society

The 2025 St Vincent de Paul Food Basket Program was a huge success serving 52 households ranging from 1 to 12 people in the households, and 31 fruit plates to the shut-ins. A HUGE thank you goes out to all the wonderful volunteers that helped Friday December 19th to pick up all the food- can goods, pantry items, produce, meat, and dairy, and the hardworking volunteers that helped to put the St. Vincent de Paul Food Baskets together on Saturday, December 20th, 2025 The love and Spirit of giving was overwhelmingly felt on both days, as the St Vincent de Paul Volunteers worked to get the event organized, and the volunteers came to make sure that those households did not go hungry for at least 3 weeks of their lives. All of this was made possible by generous donations from the faith community!

Dear Donor,

The Redono Auction is back for 2026 and will be here before we know it! This year our Home and School Association fundraising event will be held on February 14th. Your donations to the live and silent auction play a vital role in the success of our children's education. Every item, big and small, supports our school and student experience. Please consider donating a new and unused item to help our school continue to educate and nurture our children, as the education they receive today has a tremendous impact on their future.

Please fill out the form below and return it to the school and a Redono volunteer will contact you to arrange dropping off or picking up your donated item(s). If you'd rather this form be picked up, please call or text Rachael Fletcher at 660-651-5 967 or Brandy Mauzey at 660-676-8557.

We would like all donations to be submitted as soon as possible as this allows us time to document and label each item for the auction book. Please try to have your donations to us by January 30th for our volunteers to start preparing for the auction.

The sponsorships and donations of past Redono Auctions have supported the St. Pius X School in so many critical ways and we are so very grateful. Thank you for your past support and we look forward to another successful and fun event.
